

Urology office opens in Hoover

Urology Centers of Alabama has opened its 10th office at Princeton Hoover Baptist Medical Center in west Hoover.

The office, staffed by Dr. Vincent Michael Bivins and Dr. Douglas Modling, is open Tuesdays at 5209 Princeton Way.

Urology Centers has offices at cities and hospitals throughout the metro area, including Medical West in Bessemer, St. Vincent's St. Clair, St. Vincent's Birmingham, and Trinity Medical Center and Princeton Baptist Medical Center in Birmingham, said Sherry Wilson, the company's director of health education and information. It plans to open a new center in Winfield on April 20.
